

CALLING IT OUT- THEATRE IN EDUCATION PROGRAMME

IMPACT REPORT

Since 1994, Loudmouth Education and Training has been supporting schools, organisations and partnerships with their violence prevention and safeguarding programmes.

Loudmouth creates and delivers theatre in education programmes to support children and young people to have healthy and safe lives free from abuse and violence.

Loudmouth are West Midlands based and run over 1000 sessions a year, to over 100,000 children and young people a year.

Calling it Out is Loudmouth's theatre in education programme for Year 9 to post 16. This looks at sexual assault and harassment against girls and women.

For more information visit the Calling It Out page on our website.

In 2023, Loudmouth ran a total of 254 sessions of Calling It Out, a theatre in education programme on harmful sexual behaviours.

We reached 39,490 young people aged between 13 and 18 years old across the UK.

The Calling It Out programme...

- Consists of performances, character/s Q&A and a workshop that includes local and national signposting to partner support organisations.
- Explores where violent/abusive behaviours come from and how we can all work together to prevent violence and protect ourselves and others.
- Is led by Loudmouth's safeguarding trained actor/facilitators and are delivered in a safe, appropriate and trauma informed way.
- Can be run as live or virtual sessions.
- Is accompanied by teachers' resources to support our visits, this would include lesson plans, signposting information and parent/guardian support material.

“As a result of seeing the programme Calling It Out, I feel confident about being able to call out sexual harassment and stop it in ways that will not escalate the situation, whether I am the victim or a bystander.”

- Pupil

After participating in the Calling It Out programme, 87% of students stated that their awareness of sexual harassment was 'Good' or 'Excellent'. This is a rise from 65% before the sessions.
